

Consent to use materials for promotional purpose

1. By submitting an order to XDISC S.A. (hereinafter: "Contractor") the subject of which is a panel pressing service (production under the title, order of,) on behalf of (hereinafter: "Client"), I agree that materials delivered to the Contractor with the order can be used on the Contractor's website (in marketing materials and social media) by posting pictures of the product together with its graphics and the Client's logo (hereinafter: "Materials").

2. The condition for granting this consent is that the Materials be used by the Contractor in a professional manner, exclusively to promote the services provided by the Contractor, for marketing and advertising purposes, taking into account the economic interest of the Client.

3. The starting date of the possible use of the Materials is:
 - the date of the granting this consent,

 - the date of the publication of the product to which the order refers to,

 - the date

(cross out as appropriate)

4. I declare that the rights to the subject of the order held by the Client do not restrict the ability to grant the above consent.

Date:

On behalf of the Client